The Live Curious Photo and Documentary Awards 2011 Exhibition at The Lee Gardens

[Hong Kong – 4 July, 2011] Live Curious Photo and Documentary Awards 2011 is initiated by the National Geographic Channel and sponsored by Hysan Development Company Limited and Nikon Hong Kong Limited. It aims to inspire people to discover different aspects of Hong Kong, the city in which we live, study and work, with a sense of curiosity. The photo competition received over 31,000 public applications and over 4,500 student applications, while the video competition saw 59 submissions.

The Live Curious Photo and Documentary Awards 2011 exhibition is being held at the G/F of The Lee Gardens from today until 18 July, 2011. Don't miss this showcase of some of the finest local artistic talents!
